YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK AREA

SEE ALL OF THE PARK

This is the largest of our National Parks and contains the world's most amazing museum of volcanic phenomena. "EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD SEE AND ENJOY THE YELLOWSTONE." Fishermen bring your pole and cast for the big ones. No license is required in the Park. The whole family will enjoy the surprises that await them at every turn of the road. After seeing the Park spend a few days at historic Cody, the Jackson Hole country, or at one of the many outstanding resorts in Idaho and Montana. A varied choice is listed on this map. You will find Idaho Falls, Idaho, an interesting and thriving city and worth a day's stopover.

Shaw Hotel and Cafe
From Geysers to Glaciers
In a Day

Visit this startling phenomenon of Glacial formation—one of the few remains of Glacier Age, after making your Yellowstone Park trip—where you have viewed the steaming wonders. Now come with us for a day or two and just outside the boundary of the Yellowstone, we will guide you to the most wonderful Glacial formations—Grosshopper Glacier! So named because of the millions of prehistoric grasshoppers imbedded in the strata in the ice.
